

UNIVERSITY of
OTAGO

Te Whare Wānanga o Otāgo
NEW ZEALAND

TE ARA AUAHI KORE (TAKE)

ANANIA KEREHOMA COOK – KOKIRI MARAE
KERIANA OLSEN TRUST

T.A.K.E COHORT STUDY

- What is my role as a Research Assistant
- Challenges and successes when conducting the cohort study
- How being a partner to the TAKE study is going from Kokiri's perspective
- Insights of being both a Quit Coach and a Research Assistant – Two different worlds
- Whakaue whanau Study

ROLE OF A RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Interview

Recruiting

Follow up Calls

Mail Out

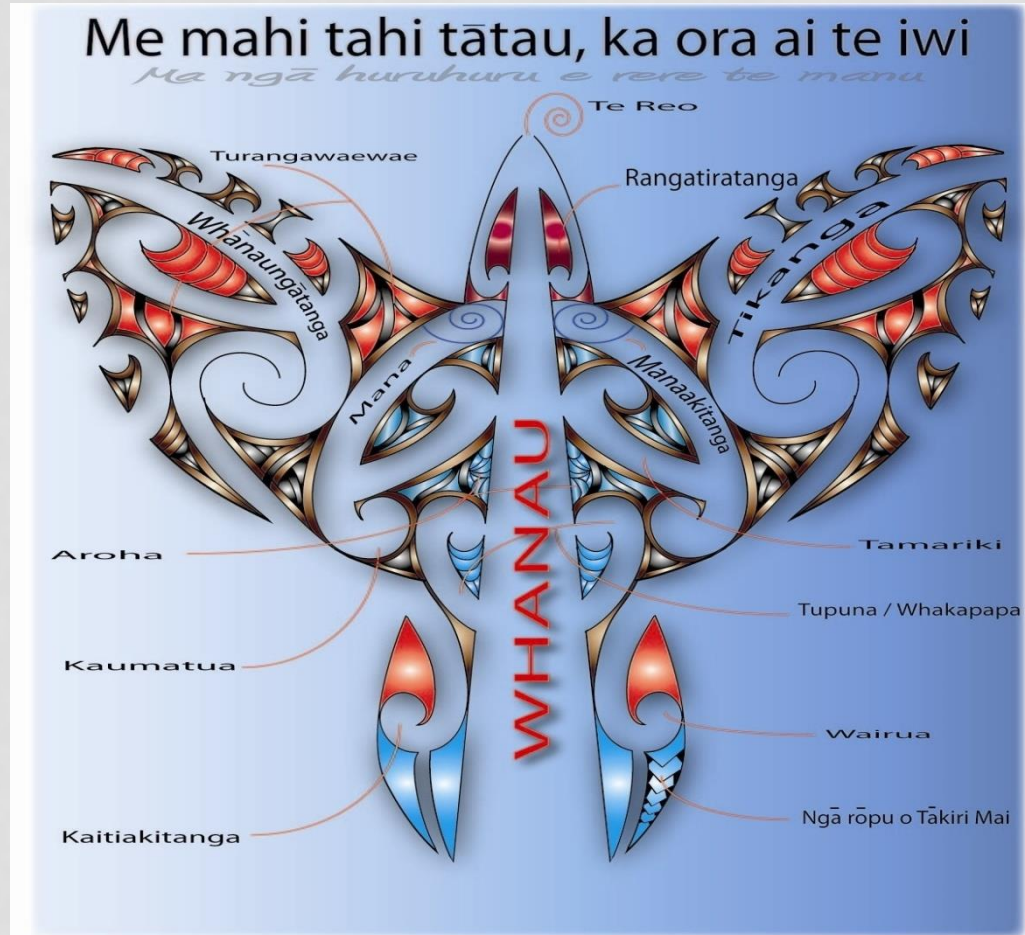

CHALLENGES & SUCCESS

- Viable contact details
- Willingness to participate
- Arranging appropriate times to interview
- Networks – Kokiri Marae
- Recruitment
- Working with our Maori whanau
- Response rate via text

HOW BEING A PARTNER TO THE TAKE STUDY IS GOING FROM KOKIRI'S PERSPECTIVE

INSIGHTS OF BEING BOTH A QUIT COACH AND A RESEARCH ASSISTANT

- Rapport
- Trust
- Face-to-face
- Differences between quit coaching & research

WHAKAUE WHANAU STUDY

- Engagement with whanau
- Whanau opinions were valued
- Creating a positive space
- Similar patterns with each whanau
- Partnership with Whakauae
- Experience

QUESTIONS

???

UNIVERSITY of
OTAGO

Te Whare Wānanga o Ōtāgo
NEW ZEALAND

THANK YOU EVERYONE

